

A consultant's go-to tool for global communication and collaboration.

There is no normal day for a consulting firm. Meetings, projects and clients constantly change, meaning technology reliability and flexibility are paramount. GoToMeeting offers solutions that make the most out of every interaction to simplify complex situations, meet deadlines and enhance results for consulting firms worldwide.

GoToMeeting is the answer to many tough challenges for consultancies

Travel restrictions, budgets and limitations

GoToMeeting's video conferencing is the easiest way to reduce travel time and expense for your organization while still maintaining important face-to-face communication when working with distant clients and teams.

Need for a secure communication channel

Meeting Lock, end-to-end AES encryption and standards-based cryptography ensure your clients' information and conversations stay private. Firewalls trust GoToMeeting's software configurations, so consulting firms can keep communication going easily and securely.

Tracking time for billing

Segmented company-wide timekeeping and reporting keep track of meeting attendees and managers. Toll-based and toll-free audio from OpenVoice Integrated allows you to bill the right party for each call.

Confidence meeting anywhere, anytime, on any device

GoToMeeting's top-rated mobile apps enable collaboration around the world, and with Business Messaging consultants can instantly chat, screen share and send files securely while on the go.
