

WHY REMOTE WORKING IS THE FUTURE OF WORK

Today's workers have been set free from their desks, empowering them to achieve greatness! Our global survey of over 3,000 professionals shows that remote work is the key to following their dreams – in both work and life.

Taking care of the family is a top benefit

Working from home allowed people to be there for loved ones when it mattered most.

Over 40%

of workers aged 25-44 said one of the biggest benefits was being able to take care of kids, family or pets.

Remote workers are better able to embrace life

Since their office can be anywhere, workers had ample opportunity to do what they always wanted to.

Remote work has a cascade of positive effects

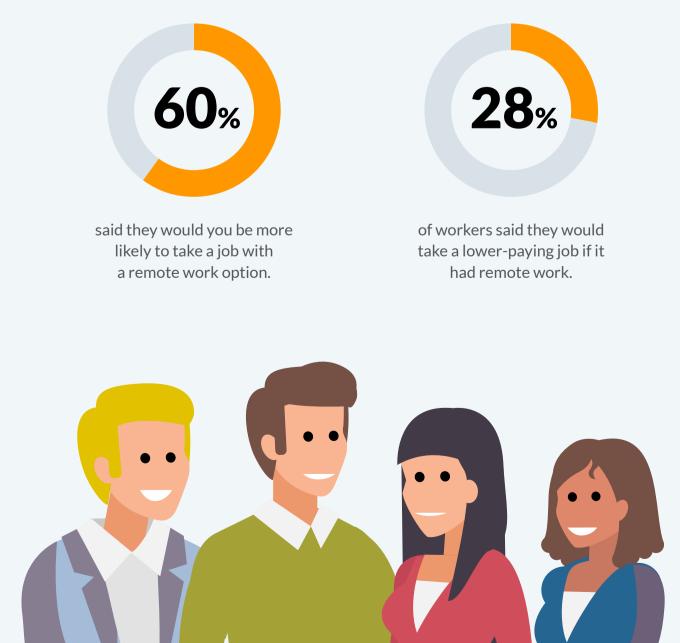

Remote work led to many benefits and workers have expectations for it to be business critical in the future.

2 in 5 workers said their lives would be worse without it.

Remote work is a top consideration as workers accept job offers or make career moves

How we work is changing, and these results show it's only for the better. Working where, how and when you want opens the door to a more fulfilling life.
